
Ramat Rahel IV is the first of a three-volume final report of the Tel Aviv-Heidelberg Renewed Excavations at Ramat Rahel, 2005–2010. It presents the stratigraphy and architecture of the excavation areas (including portions of the palatial compound, the subterranean columbarium complex and the Late Roman cemetery); site formation of the tell; twentieth-century fortifications at the site; and the ancient garden and its water installations. Ramat Rahel IV will be followed by Ramat Rahel V and Ramat Rahel VI.

This volume was authored by Professor Oded Lipschits, Director of the Sonia and Marco Nadler Institute of Archaeology of Tel Aviv University, by Manfred Oeming, Professor of Old Testament Theology and the vice president of the College for Jewish Studies at the University of Heidelberg, and by Yuval Gadot, Professor of Archaeology of Israel in the Second and First Millennia BCE and chair of the Jacob M. Alkow Department of Archaeology and Ancient Near Eastern Cultures at Tel Aviv University.

Ramat Rahel IV, the 39th in the Monograph Series of the Institute of Archaeology of Tel Aviv University, is a co-publication of the Institute of Archaeology and Eisenbrauns, an imprint of Penn State University Press.
