1948 as a Jewish World War

Professor Dror Yochai Benel
Samuel Zacks Professor of Jewish History, University of Toronto, and the Stanley Lewis Professor of Israel Studies, University of Oxford

The land of Israel, the history of the country, and the events of 1948.

Thursday, November 11, 2012
16:45 - 18:15

Room 133, 13th Floor, Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Presenting the visual and written sources.

Image:

- A group of soldiers in uniform
- A desert landscape
- A map of Israel
- A military vehicle
- A portrait of a soldier
- A historical photograph
- A modern photograph

Text:

"The year 1948 was a defining moment in the history of the modern state of Israel. It was a time of great conflict and tension, as the newly formed state of Israel fought for its survival against a combination of Arab forces and their international allies. The war resulted in the displacement of hundreds of thousands of people, and the establishment of Israel as a modern state."