

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| Preface | 7* |
| Editors' Foreword | 9* |
| Contributors | 11* |
| Introduction: The Jewish Quarter | 15* |
| Part I (English) | |
| The Jewish Neighborhood in Germany from the Middle Ages to the Early Modern Period | 23* |
| Medinat Magenza as a Jewish 'Neighborhood' and a Jewish 'Urban Center': Between Topography and Geography | |
| Rainer Josef Barzen | 25* |
| A Jewish Neighborhood in the Medieval City of Erfurt | |
| Maria Stürzebecher | 51* |
| Ownership and Residence in Fourteenth-century Marseille's Jusataria | |
| Juliette Sibon | 71* |
| Archival Sources on the Topography of the Jewish Quarter in Regensburg | |
| Astrid Riedler-Pohlert | 85* |
| Perception of the Jewish Quarter of Regensburg as a Social and Spatial Entity at the Time of the Ritual Murder Accusation | |
| Sophia Schmitt | 113* |
| Violence and Assaults on Regensburg Jews on the Brink of Their Expulsion in 1519 | |
| Veronika Nickel | 133* |
| Alongside, Against and Together with Christians: The Jewish Population of Mainz in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries | |
| Ulrich Hausmann | 153* |
| The Urban Map of Jewish Worms in the Early Modern Period (Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries) | |
| Ursula Reuter | 173* |
| Beyond the Call of Duty: Ashkenazi Hasidim and Christian Chivalry | |
| Joseph Shatzmiller | 221* |
| Modern Boundaries: The Eruv in New York City in 1905 | |
| Adam Mintz | 237* |
| Part II (Hebrew) | |
| The Eruv and Its Influence on the Jewish Street in the Middle Ages | 21 |
| Urban Characteristics of the Eruv Chatzerot in Medieval Ashkenaz and France | |
| Boaz Hutterer | 23 |
| Eruvin in the Form of a Symbolic Gate | |
| Joseph Isaac Lifshitz | 47 |
| Treasure Key: Women, Jewelry, and Halakha in Medieval France and Ashkenaz | |
| Merav Schnitzer | 67 |